

Serviced Office Space UK

52-56 Bermondsey Street

London SE1 3JG

Nestled just behind the bustling London Bridge station, this workspace lies in a charming and vibrant area, often described as the city's cultural pearl. Here, visitors can indulge their senses in a diverse assortment of independent eateries, cafés, bars, and boutiques that delightfully line the lively street. Complementing the casual social atmosphere of snug local pubs, culture enthusiasts can quench their thirst for the arts at nearby contemporary galleries like the renowned White Cube. Moreover, just a short stroll away, visitors can meet with an enticing array of attractions, from the aromatic Borough Market to the impressive Tate Modern, and the beautiful scenery of More London and the Thames. This exceptional locality boasts not one, but three outstanding independent cafés to cater to the morning caffeine fix.

With workspace becoming increasingly congested and pressured, it is becoming more difficult to find an area that is both private enough to work effectively, yet also well-equipped with the necessary facilities to get tasks done. That's why this unique office space offers a balance between these two elements. Here members will find a fitted and fully managed workspace where and can move in straight away and enjoy the extra added flexibility of even more space. Around the centrepiece of a private courtyard, equipped with WIFI, cycle storage and shower pods, members can make use of the newly refurbished reception with the kitchen, informal break-out areas, and meeting rooms for collaboration and inspiration. Lockers and shower facilities are included for members' convenience too.
