16 Old Queen Street

London SW1H 9HP

The serviced offices and virtual offices available at this centre are first-class well-equipped facilities and perfectly positioned in an ideal location just moments from Westminster, Whitehall and the Houses of Parliament. The property overlooks the beautiful St James's Park, and many offices benefit from exceptionally scenic views, making for an enjoyable environment in which to work. Transport links include St. James's Park Station, which connects with the District and Circle Lines of the network.

This unbranded business centre is close to Westminster and benefits from beautiful outlooks over St James's Park. Its tall sash windows and stylish club lounge are particular highlights of the building. Flexible offices and suites are available to suit a range of requirements from 1 to 20 desks. Two modern boardrooms and video-conferencing facilities are also provided on the lower ground floor. Air conditioning helps the offices be comfortable for tenants and visits, which is especially important in those warm summer months. In addition, the office building is accessible 24 hours a day, further increasing the flexible nature of this prestigious business address.
