

Serviced Office Space UK

6-8 Ganton Street

London W1F 7QW

The centre is located in the heart of Soho, moments away from Carnaby Street, London's most fashionable street, and on the doorstep of trendy Kingly Court. The area is unparalleled in terms of transport, shops, restaurants, bars and coffee shops. The building is minutes away from multiple underground stations, so is very well connected by public transport, and there are also various bus routes passing close by, further enhancing this. Heathrow and London City Airports are within easy reach for international travel.

The building brings together a beautiful combination of a minimalist design and original Victorian features. The building has undergone extensive refurbishment offering six beautifully designed private offices on multiple floors, ranging from 3 to 12 people. Each room has been designed to the highest specification offering a modern and fresh working environment, all featuring large windows, original hardwood floors & cast iron fireplaces. The offices are fully serviced and have been stylishly furnished to a very high standard. The Prices are all-inclusive, so there are no nasty surprises at the end of each month.
