

Serviced Office Space UK

London SE1 3ER

A restored period building, previously a tannery, this centre is drenched in character in an ideal location only a short walk to London Bridge, and all its amenities. Numerous bus routes also service the area. Situated close to Long Lane and Tower Bridge, London Bridge station and Borough Market are only a few minutes away.

Centrally located with 24 hour access, this centre allows you to work your way, pop in to the office whenever you want and take advantage of the facilities on offer. There are meeting rooms, staffed reception and a centre manager who take care of the day to day running of the office and greet your guests for you. This centre also offers co-working facilities, set in the heart of the premises. Designed for entrepreneurs, small businesses and professionals looking to grow their business, this centre provides a great first base in a key City-Fringe location.
