

Serviced Office Space UK

137 - 139 High Street

Beckenham BR3 1AG

The location of this space is excellent - situated on Beckenham Street, restaurants, bars and cafes are abundant where tenants can break out or have a casual business meeting. There are also two mainline train stations with services to Victoria and Charing Cross and a tram line taking directly into Croydon. If tenants want to venture out, the centre has access to Bromley town centre, which is only a 10-minute drive, where tenants will find The Glades shopping centre, which has plenty of local shops and eateries.

The modern design, state-of-the-art technology, and well-thought-out layout of the business centre contribute to creating an efficient workspace. By offering these amenities, the business centre aims to meet the diverse needs of its occupants. Advanced technology, such as high-speed internet, modern audio-visual equipment, and smart office solutions, ensures that teams can work efficiently and seamlessly, staying connected and productive. The thoughtfully designed amenities contribute to the overall aesthetic appeal of the business centre, creating an atmosphere that is both professional and inviting. This combination of functionality and aesthetics can leave a positive impression on clients, visitors, and potential partners who visit the space.
