Manchester M1 5AN

Based in the heart of Manchester's innovation and academic quarter, an outstanding location on Manchester's main central square. The centre is just steps away from cultural attractions such as the historic Museum of Science and Industry. Public transport options are plentiful with Manchester Oxford Road train station being just a five-minute walk away and bus stops being just two-minutes away by foot. There are city centre car parks nearby and the A57(M) is just five-minutes drive which leads you to the M60 and out of the city centre ensuring the city is well connected.

Outstanding serviced office suites available in modern refurbished building located in central Manchester. The building spans 10-floors of one of the city's newest conversions! There are a variety of different office suites available which come fully furnished with new stylish furniture and are inclusive of WiFi, phones and utility bills (consumables such as coffee, copies and calls are paid separately). There is a staffed reception area which is an impressive welcome area for clients. The offices are customised and scale up is available if you outgrow your suite there are add on options for expansion. Administration support is available on site which can assist with mail handling and call answering along with printing and copying.
