

Serviced Office Space UK

71-75 Uxbridge Road

London W5 5SL

Tenants will enjoy a hyper-connected location in the heart of Ealing - an area that has gone significant regeneration and is now home to an eclectic range of fine eateries, watering holes, theatres and music venues. Whether you're looking for a spot of lunch, or a night of entertainment upon leaving the office, Ealing will have somewhere to explore. In terms of transport, tenants will have Ealing Broadway and West Ealing stations' both 10-minutes walk in the opposite directions. Both stations offer Great West Railway services to London Paddington, and TfL Rail services and are due to be part of the Elizabeth Line upon opening. Ealing Broadway station also offers tube access - being served by the Central and District Lines.

Join a likeminded bunch of professional entrepreneurs in this Ealing-based centre that boasts an impressive contemporary design with swathes of natural light - making for a very productive atmosphere. A magnificent, friendly onsite team are on-hand throughout the week to answer any queries and allow you to focus solely on business. Tenants can plug in and get to work with reliable, speedy internet and the centre has a bunch of different working environments - from private rooms to breakout spaces - to allowing you to mix it up during the day and stay feeling productive. The space also possesses a fantastic roof terrace, where you can go to take a minute and chill, taking in the inspiring views of the City.
