

Serviced Office Space UK

London EC3A 2DX

Due to the central location of this space, excellent public transport links are available nearby. The centre is extremely well located, with Fenchurch Street Station on the doorstep and Liverpool Street Station a 5-minute walk away, providing easy access to any corner of the city. This office space is surrounded by a range of restaurants, shops, hotels, and other useful amenities, all within walking distance. A short stroll in any direction will lead to even further discoveries, from the fine dining venues in Spitalfields to the creative and independent venue in Aldgate or the premium waterside setting of Street Katharine Docks.

The creative office space is in the heart of London city. A fantastic business centre filled with an abundance of natural lighting, custom art, and stylish furniture. The building benefits from the private workspace, daily cleaning, and 24-hour security response. The available workspace comprises fully fitted offices, which are fully cabled and are internet and telephony ready. There is also access to shared kitchen facilities where tea and coffee are available. The office space has other facilities like a reception desk and phone booths. Flexibility and affordability are two main factors to consider in this workspace.
