Strelley NG8 6PE

Set in parkland located 4 miles from Nottingham centre, this centre is very convenient for the western outer loop road and junction 26 of the M1.

An attractive period building, this centre was originally built as a castle about 1200 AD and has been modified substantially in the early and late-eighteenth century and again in the nineteenth century. Apart from being home to a variety of businesses it is also the venue for various meetings and conferences, weddings and celebrations, as well as an annual summer fair.
