

Serviced Office Space UK

London W8 4DB

The office space is located between Kensington High Street and Notting Hill Gate. These offices are just five minutes walk from Notting Hill Gate tube station, which offers the District, Circle, and Central lines. Local bus services can be accessed on Kensington Church Street and Kensington High Street. For businesses with international travel requirements, London City and Heathrow Airports are both within a 10-mile radius. There are plenty of amenities in the area, including high-end shops and top-class restaurants. Kensington Gardens and Holland Park are also within walking distance, providing open green space to enjoy and explore.

This restored period property offers furnished private serviced offices of various sizes for rent. This business center can accommodate teams of various sizes and a flexible rental package can incorporate a range of optional services and use of facilities, with the convenience of an all-inclusive monthly cost. Office suites are spread across four floors, and the property has lift services throughout. The interior features elegant décor and retains many attractive period features. Facilities include high-speed broadband and telephone systems, well-appointed meeting rooms, and shared kitchens. The welcoming reception area is manned during office hours, with staff on hand to greet visitors. The property is monitored by CCTV, and tenants can securely access the workspace 24/7.
