7 Granard Business Centre

London NW7 2DQ

Located in London's busy financial core, the building offers guests and tenants transport convenience. Bus stops are easily within walking distance, while taxis can be requested quickly. Heathrow Airport is just a short car drive away. Furthermore, there are multiple hotels and restaurants nearby for those seeking an extended stay or a food option. This ideal transport-rich location provides guests and tenants access to transport resources and all of the benefits that come from being situated in one of London's notable business districts.

This unique office space is equipped with amenities capable of providing a team with the utmost efficiency. From air-conditioned private office spaces to comfortable meeting spaces, each room is tastefully furnished while still accommodating plenty of moving space. The building also contains multiple break-out areas, allowing members to collaboratively brainstorm in these vibrant and light-filled meeting rooms. Utility areas are filled with beverages that give everyone a chance to network and converse; moreover, large windows guarantee that every employee will stay focused on their tasks even during breaks.
